

October 2014

Dear Microbiologics Customer,

The scientific name of Microbiologics product 0451 (ATCC Licensed Derivative[®] ATCC[®] 34140^{™*}) has been changed from Cryptococcus albidus var. albidus to Cryptococcus liquefaciens. ATCC reported to Microbiologics that the name of ATCC[®] 34140^{™*} was changed because the strain was reclassified as Cryptococcus liquefaciens. This is based upon the sequencing results of the ITS D1/D2 region obtained during quality control testing of the most recent lot produced at ATCC.

Sincerely,

Kali Sorum
